

High class groceries make high class dinners. You cannot afford to neglect your Christmas dinner.

You owe it to your family to get the best—and you can, at our store, where we have all standard food-stuffs and provisions.

Yes, we will soon move into our new store, two doors south, and to avoid moving our large stock of groceries we are going to make some very great reductions in prices. Come to the store and see our bargains. WE WILL SELL OUR CASE GOODS AT COST.

J. S. Carver & Sons

2354 Washington Avenue

Phone 277

Society

VISITING IN OGDEN.

Arthur W. Cooley arrived yesterday from San Francisco for a few days' visit at the home of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Sadie West, and other relatives. Mr. Cooley is western manager of the Dearborn Drug & Chemical Co. and has general offices in the California metropolis.

PARCEL SHOWER

Last Wednesday afternoon at the home of Miss Frances Ritter a parcel shower was given in honor of Miss Sadie Ritter whose engagement was recently announced. The afternoon was spent in games and dancing and fifteen friends enjoyed the afternoon. Miss Ritter received some very pretty gifts.

MUSICAL TEA

This afternoon beginning at 2:30 o'clock, Miss Ellen Meissner, instructor in piano, gave a musical tea at her studio, 1225 Twenty-fifth street. A number of pupils will appear on the program. Parents, friends and other pupils were present and an enjoyable afternoon was spent. This affair is preparatory to a public recital to be given soon by Miss Meissner when a large number of her pupils will be presented.

The program given this afternoon follows:

"Quiver".....Ganz
Beatrice Dye and Miss Meissner
"Children's Waltz".....Kohler
"Childs Morning Prayer".....Kohler
"Sreischutz" (a); (b); (c).....Kohler
Miss Agnes Humphrey
"Little Wanderer".....Lange
"Morning Prayer".....Streabog
Helen Gilbert
"How Grandma Danced".....Barrett
"America First".....Barrett

Lorna Jones

"The Sylphs".....Burgmuller

"Romance Sans Paroles".....Streabog

Fern Riddiough

Reading (selected).....Harmon Meissner

"Glissando Mazurka".....Bohn

Beatrice Dye

Impromptu.....Schubert

Opus 90 No. 4.....Schoolen

Hungarian Ballet.....Tressa Drabble

Miss Meissner will be assisted in serving refreshments by several of the older students.

METHODIST MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

Mrs. Homer Seip was hostess to the Missionary society of the Methodist church on Wednesday afternoon and an unusually large attendance testified to the increasing interest in the missionary work as well as the popularity of the hostess. At the close of the business session presided over by the president, Mrs. Clancy-Smith, Mrs. Dodson took charge of the program each number of which was well

EASTERN TRIP.

Mrs. T. Lockhart and two little sons, Lester and Woodrow, left Ogdan today for Flint, Mich., where they will visit Mr. Lockhart's relatives for a few weeks. Other points of interest throughout the east will be visited.

VISITING IN OGDEN.

Mrs. R. C. Howell of Salt Lake is visiting in Ogdan with her mother, Mrs. J. H. Simister. Mrs. R. B. Archibald,

MUNITION WORKERS CHEER KING GEORGE

King George wildly cheered at munitions plant in Bedfordshire.

The great popularity King George enjoys among the English people is evidenced by the ovations given him wherever he appears in the kingdom. Here is shown a demonstration by workers in a Bedfordshire munitions factory, where the king paid a visit. It is worthy of an American throng paying tribute to a world's series hero.

bal, another daughter of Mrs. Simister, has returned to her home in Boise after a two weeks' stay in Ogdan.

TO GREET HUSBAND WHO IS ON WAY FROM FRANCE

Mrs. James A. Northrup, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Moyes for some time, left Ogdan Friday afternoon for New York City where she will meet her husband who is to arrive from France on business for the government sometime next week.

Captain Northrup is in the administrative department of the Signal Corps and has been in charge of purchases of clothing for the aviation service.

When Captain Northrup returns to France again, Mrs. Northrup expects to come west to spend some time.

FOR A DECEMBER BRIDE-TO-BE

Miss Sadie Ritter whose marriage will be an interesting event of the coming week has been the honored guest during the past few days at a number of delightful entertainments, one of the most pleasant being a kitchen shower given last Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. Ida Ritter. Fourteen girl friends of the bride-to-be were present at this affair and brought the honor guest many useful kitchen utensils.

A temptingly served luncheon was a pleasant feature of the afternoon affair.

WEDDING SUPPER

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Peck of Murray entertained Wednesday evening with a wedding supper in honor of the marriage of their brother Mr. William Peck of Ogdan and Miss Maude King of Layton. The decorations were of violets and carnations.

HOUSE GUEST.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Morrissey had as their house guests during the past week, Mrs. Carl Clark and son Clarence.

RETURNS TO OGDEN.

Mrs. Fred Smith has returned from Denver after a pleasant stay there with friends.

IS STENOGRAPHER.

Thomas Maples left Ogdan last Monday to take up stenography work in the army recruiting offices of Salt Lake City.

FROM TREMONTON.

Mrs. J. A. Smith had as her house guests last Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Carter, who motored from Tremont.

COAST TRIP.

Mrs. Mary Connor has gone to the coast to spend the winter months in Los Angeles and San Francisco. She left Ogdan last Tuesday.

MRS. R. J. HILLIARD HONORED IN TREMONT.

Many friends of Mrs. R. T. Hilliard and her talented daughter, Dr. Ruth

Hilliard, will be gratified to learn of their pleasant life in Trenton, New Jersey, where they went to live some two years ago, and that they are appreciated and honored by the circle of friends, they have made there.

Mrs. Hilliard has a large number of friends who remember her ready, efficient aid along all lines that tend for improvement and general uplift, or warm sympathy. She joined the Civics-Suffrage club soon after arriving in Trenton and was appointed as delegate to the National Woman's suffrage convention which met in Atlantic City last May and was also delegate to the semi-annual suffrage convention which met in Trenton in November.

The Civics-Suffrage club of Trenton has a large membership of intellectual willing workers and all have warmly welcomed the former Ogdan club woman. At their recent election of officers, Mrs. Hilliard was nominated and unanimously elected president of the club, a position which she hesitated to accept, but was finally prevailed upon, because, as she told them, her heart was with the work and the members and she was willing to apply her time and thought to the aims of the organization. A Trenton newspaper paid Mrs. Hilliard high tribute for her exceptional abilities in club work.

Dr. Ruth Hilliard has made a fine reputation at the head of the institution she is in as a physician and as a bright, gracious woman.

HAS JOINED ARMY.

Laurence J. Carter spent a few hours in Ogdan last Tuesday prior to his departure for Fort Douglas.

WILL GO EAST.

Mrs. Arthur Cunningham will leave Ogdan for Utica, N. Y., to be nearer her husband who is in the military service.

WEEK END VISIT.

Miss Bess O'Neill spent the week end in Salt Lake as the house guest of Miss Loretta Malone.

OGDEN BOYS AND GIRLS APPEAR ON STAGE AT ORPHEUM.

When the grand benefit entertainment for the benefit of Battery B boys and other soldiers was given at the Orpheum theater last Wednesday and Thursday evenings many families were represented in the cast comprising the children's operetta, among them being the following:

Dancing Girls—Marion Eccles, Ruth Wright, Beatrice Brownings, Mary Matson, June Ray, Dorothy Seaworth, Virginia Seaworth, Gene Chez, Elmer Taylor, Edith Halverson, Evelyn Huxley, Deborah Hoxer, Verna Lloyd, Mabel Holst, Helen Stevenson, Virginia Green.

Fairies—Marion Allison, Barbara Brownings, Minerva Ray, Norma Pardoe, Guinevere Hess, Jane Kennedy.

Gypsy villagers—Mary McCune, Katherine Madison, Eleanor Newey, Kella Parker, Ella Parker, Arlie Smith, Fern Pardoe, Margaret Falck.

Helen Foster, Dora Gibson, Barbara Davis, Fawnette Allen, Alton Morris, Mary Ray, Lindel Smith, Virginia Neuteboom, Ruth Broughton, Ruth Nelson, Blanche Seaworth, Elora Leon, Bertha Eccles, Dolly Devine, Dona Forsgren, Janet Farnsworth, Esther Harris, Ada Holst, Josephine Madison, Rosmary Scoville.

Gypsy townsmen—Julian Wright, David Holther, William Petty, Alvin Donaldson, Junior Cousins, Philip Ring, Norman Shipley, Allison Smith, Ronald Marsden, Sam Davis, Leslie Davis, Marvin Ludwig, Theodore Thompson, Robert Driscoll, David Stewart, Ray Scoville, Wesley Mullen, Allen Burnham, Elsworth Weaver, Edwin Woolley, Gordon Wright, Parker Culley, Douglas Leon, Bill Ware, Milton Kreines, Alvin Leishman.

SPLENDID PROGRAM AT O. H. S.

Last evening at the Ogdan High school a musical and literary entertainment was given before a large and appreciative audience. The program was of unusual merit and each student proved his or her adaptability to the musical or literary number assigned them.

The complete program follows:

Song, "America, I Love You," girls' double trio.

Reading, "Sonny," Irving Brian.

Dialect reading, "Watchin' the Stockin'," Alleen Smith.

Violin solo, Paul Wheeler.

Reading, "The Old Man and Shep," Raymond Williams.

Character readings, (a) "Guiseppa de Barberi," (b) "I Gotta a Mash Wid Mag McClue," Virginia Ellis.

Reading, "Gene Deprez," Mary Ensign.

Music, selected.

Reading, "The Ole Man and Jim," Josephine Baker.

Reading, "Cyrus Brown's Prayer," Alice Beck.

Music, string quartet.

FAREWELL FOR JACK RITSON.

On Thursday evening of this week, Jack Ritson, who has joined the army, was tendered a pleasant farewell party at his home, 3556 Adams avenue, where a jolly crowd of friends gathered to bid him goodbye.

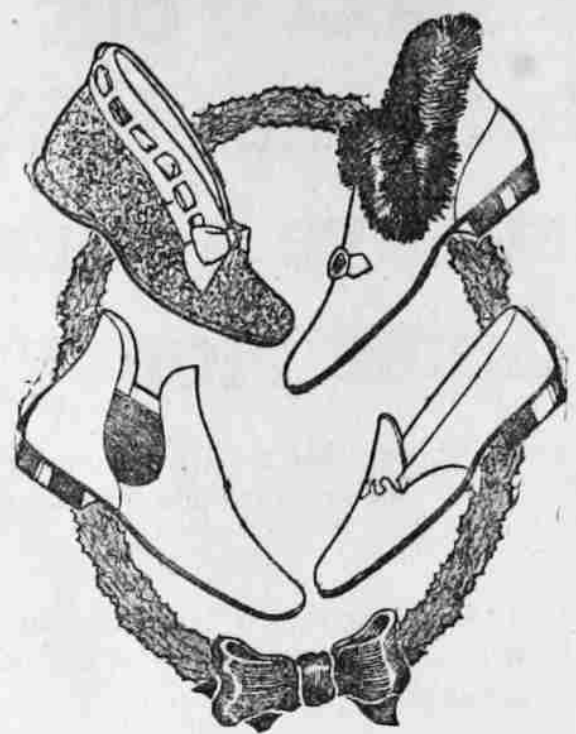

Dancing, vocal and instrumental music and refreshments comprised the evening's entertainment, the following being present: Mr. and Mrs. William Combe, Mr. and Mrs. R. Dadoek, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Hempstead, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Winchester, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Shupe, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Shupe and Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Richardson.

OGDEN GIRL WEBS IN NEW MEXICO

Last Saturday morning at 9 o'clock mass, Miss Margaret Grill, charming and talented daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Grill of 2970 Lincoln avenue, became the bride of Lieut. Thomas Lynch of Deming, New Mexico. The ceremony occurred in the Catholic church at Deming.

The bride is remembered in Ogdan.

Wright's
A GOOD PLACE TO TRADE

Christmas Sale of Slippers

With the opening of the store Monday morning, we make a great display and sale of Christmas Slippers in the Shoe Basement.

One thousand pairs of good-looking, comfortable Slippers, such as will be wanted for gifts, will be sold at prices that should take the entire lot out in short order. These will all be displayed on tables for easy choosing.

Styles for Men.....95c to $2.95

Styles for Women...75c to $1.25

Styles for Children...70c to $1.00

Styles for Infants.....85c

Odds and Ends at 35c

Fifty pairs only—odds and ends from last year's selling—carpet slippers and felt slippers for women—most of the felt styles are in black. These will be on a separate table where they are to be sold at 35c per pair.

Finest Slippers Upstairs

The finest qualities of Slippers for women and Children are on sale on the first floor. Here you will find the very handsomest styles of the year in fancy felt and kid slippers in all styles for women and children. Make early selections before the stocks are broken.

as one of this city's most delightful young ladies. She is a graduate of Sacred Heart academy and also has a host of friends in public school circles where she was an instructor in the Quincy and Madison schools. Mrs. Lynch is the possessor of a sweet soprano voice having been leading solo-

(Continued on Page 15)

LET THIS BE YOUR ELECTRICAL CHRISTMAS

Our Sale Prices on Electric FIXTURES for the Holidays Will Surprise You

An Electric Gift is always more than welcome—and you get the most for your money here.

Our stock is the most complete and up-to-date in Ogdan.

See our line of Xmas Tree Lights and Cooking Appliances.

Ogden Electric Supply Co.

2448 Washington Ave.

$40.00

ROUND TRIP
TO BOTH

San Francisco and Los Angeles

VIA THE

Southern Pacific

Stop-overs Allowed.

Tickets on Sale December 20, 22, 24, 29

Final Limits February 28, 1918.

WILLARD G. WILSON

Commercial Agent Southern Pacific.
Reed Hotel Building. Phone 195.

BIG TURNOUT OF ARABS WATCHES TOMMIES DRAG HEAVY GUN THROUGH STREETS OF HISTORIC BAGDAD

Arabs watch British troops pass through Bagdad.

The streets of Bagdad, celebrated in song and story as the seat of oriental revelry, are witnessing more serious goings on these days. The photo shows interested Arabs watching a file of Tommies pulling a big British gun through the streets of the city.